

Astronomy Night

What: Join DAEE for a fun-filled night of astronomy at Mount Cuba Astronomical Observatory! Delaware Astronomical Society President, Rob Lancaster will discuss what we can see in our night sky, present a planetarium show, give a tour of the facility, and guide us in using the telescopes and equipment for observing (weather permitting!)

When: Thursday January 18, 2018 from 7-9pm

Where: Mount Cuba Astronomical Observatory, 1610 Hillside Mill Rd, Greenville, DE 19807

RSVP: This is a FREE event only for DAEE members. The cost for non-members is $25 and includes DAEE membership. Please register here: <https://mtcubaevent.eventbrite.com> by January 15th.

Special: Register for our annual conference on February 24th as an early bird for $40! Conference registration includes membership!
